

Wicklander-Zulawski SEMINAR

Developers of the WZ Non-Confrontational Method of Interview & Interrogation

Gang Investigations Triple "I" Identify, Interview & Interrogate

The WZ Seminar on Gang Investigations "Triple I" was developed to increase the knowledge base and enhance the skills of law enforcement professionals in dealing with criminal street gangs. This dynamic course combines a comprehensive overview of gangs and gang activity with successful interview and interrogation tactics and strategies. A unique feature of this seminar is a full course of instruction in the acclaimed WZ Non-Confrontational Method of Interview & Interrogation.

Gang Investigations – Identify, Interview and Interrogate, also known as Gang Investigations "Triple I", is designed for the detective, patrol officer and special agent. This 3-day course provides instruction in gang identification and investigation, and focuses on the skills necessary to conduct field interviews with victims, witnesses, informants and suspects.

Backed by the latest research in behavior, psychology and law, WZ's Seminar on Gang Investigations "Triple I" includes a valuable segment that explains the mind-set of a gang member and identifies investigative strategies that have proven to be successful in developing cases for criminal prosecution.

This course also addresses the link between gang activity and terrorism, details current and future trends, and offers tips on dealing with violent crimes, search techniques, and handling informants.

SEMINAR TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Gang Definitions
- Historical Perspective and Overview
- Terrorism
- Development and Handling Informants
- Interpretation of Verbal and Physical Behavior
- Reducing Resistance
- Interviewing Informants, Victims and Witnesses
- Interrogating the Suspect

*The instructor, John J. Guzman, CFI® served with the Chicago Police Department for 23 years.
